

Ready for Life Academy

INCLUSIVE COLLEGE PROGRAM

Transition program for people with special needs ages 18-26

Location: Calvin College

Re-established: January, 2017

Funding Partners: Tuition, Ready for Life Scholarship Fund

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Interaction and involvement on a college campus with same age peers
- Lifelong learning model based on students individual goals
- Instruction in the core areas of transition by a certified special educator
- Participation in College classes
- Participation in campus activities
- Volunteer job placements on campus and in the community
- Community Living Support services for after school support
- Four year program

PROGRAM VALUES

- Individual worth and value
- Lifelong learning model dedicated to:
 - Fostering interdependent community
 - Encouraging strong work skills
 - Cultivating gift-based character
- Inclusion
- Service learning
- Building purposeful relationships
- Promoting healthy lifestyle habits
- Advancing individual responsibility and citizenship

STUDENT REQUIREMENTS

- Diagnosed special need
- Completion of high school with certificate of completion or high school diploma
- Future goals of living independently and having paid employment
- Completed application

ReadyForLife

3250 28th street SE
Suite 102
Grand Rapids, MI 49512

- Copy of IEP and MET
 - Completed school referral form
 - Completed health form
- The following assessed skills during interview:
 - Minimum 3rd grade comprehensive reading level
 - Basic money skills
 - Ability to cross streets safely
 - Knowledge of personal information
 - Name, address, phone number, email address, etc
 - Ability to write, type or dictate a paragraph
 - Calculator skills
 - Basic conversation skills
 - Beginning life skills
 - Personal hygiene, basic meal prep, etc
- Signed student guideline and policy handbook
- Parent/Guardian/Caregiver requirements
 - Willing to allow the RFL student the dignity of risk to make individual decisions and move around the campus and community without direct supervision.
 - Signed financial contract taking responsibility for the cost of tuition
 - Open communication with Ready for Life staff

IMPACT OF READY FOR LIFE

- Improved self-confidence, independence, communication skills and community awareness for Ready for Life students
- Skill learning and skills development for Ready for Life students
- Increase in maturity level for Ready for Life students
- Meaningful friendships between Ready for Life students and Calvin college students
- On campus special education learning environment for Calvin college students
- Community commitment to inclusivity

STAFF

Emily Perton

Executive Director

emily.perton@rflnetwork.org

(616)248-3775

(616)550-5064