

Ready For Life Academy Instructor at Ferris State University

Ready For Life, a nonprofit organization, is looking for a dynamic, motivated individual to be an instructor at the Ferris State University Ready For Life Academy Program. Ready For Life offers inclusive learning opportunities for adults with intellectual disabilities.

As the Academy Program Director your Responsibilities would be:

- Create and Implement PATH plans for each student.
- Implement defined Scope and Sequence curriculum in the areas of independent living and employment skills by teaching two RFLA classes/semester.
- Create students schedules each semester.
- Create and implement syllabi for RFLA classes.
- Assist in creating a culture of belonging for all RFLA students on campus.
- Monitor student's university class progress and make appropriate accommodations for university class work.
- Record data on student progress and concern.
- Communicate with University staff as needed.
- Connect students to on campus activities.
- Assist with hosting two visit days a year.
- Effectively communicate with RFL staff, students, and guardians on a regular basis.
- Complete and distribute progress reports each semester.
- Recruit, train and oversee student peer partners.
- Support students with social and emotional needs as needed.
- Availability to work Monday through Friday from 8:00am-4:00pm / Fall and Spring semester.

Qualified applicants possess:

- A passion for our mission of working with people with an intellectual disability
- Bachelor's Degree in Special Education
- Active special education teaching certificate

Salary: $45,000 - $50,000/year plus benefits

